Day Two— Bus Tour, Dinner & Show

The bus tour today is a half day tour which again starts at 9am We start by going to St. Peter's Square, Vatican City (pictured on the right)-which is a city inside Rome . If it's a Sunday the Pope will be having services outside— this is a very popular attraction for tourists and non tourists alike. After visiting St. Peter's Square, it's off to the Pantheon which is one of the most famous buildings in Rome.

The Pantheon is a temple dedicated to all the gods, The interior is decorated with colored marble..

After a long day, a special treat before going back to New York City the next morning— dinner and a show at the famous Fantasie di Trastevere Restaurant and Theatre. The food is wonderful with all Italian specialties. After a nice musical performance you'll be brought back to your hotel via limousine.

Our Mission

At the Fly by Night agency we want everyone to have a wonderful flight to our destination— Rome, Italy with all the comforts of home.

Our planes have bean bag cushioned seats, with each seat having their own HDTV cable 20 inch television, own ice cream bar and all the chips and chocolate you can eat in flight. The food is great— all home cooked - we specialize in Jamaican, Italian, and Chinese food.

Travel in style in our airplanes

There's always free movies on all our flights, this month we have a special two in flight movies for the months of May, June, July and August when you take any of our flights to Rome.

So be sure to also take one of our flights from New York to Rome during the month of May while the temperatures are in the low 70's during the daytime and 60-75 degrees at night.

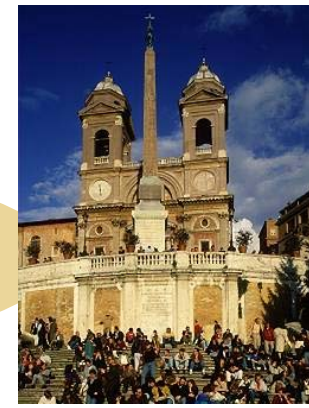

Our low round trip airfare will be only cost $650.00 per person (514.80 Euro) which includes taxes and other fees.

Day One: Walking Tour

The daily walking tour departs from our hotel— the 5 star Bettoja San Giorgio Hotel at 9am sharp.

The first stop in Rome is the Colosseum. It was used for staged battles between lions and Christians, among other spectacles, and is one of the most famous pieces of architecture in the world.

Tourists in Rome gather on the Spanish Steps. These steps lead up to the Trinità dei Monti church in the Piazza di Spagna.

The Trevi Fountain in Rome, Italy, has statues of gods and horses around the fountain. According to tradition, tossing a coin into the Trevi Fountain ensures a return visit to Rome.

The Arch of Constantine is actually three arches in one. It is named after Constantine who was one of the rulers of Rome.

A gondola (boat) ride down the Tiber River. In this view of the River you can also see St. Peter's Basilica.
